

“An exemplary film which will enrich and deepen discussion by college students, faculty, and community groups addressing the complex aspects of race and racism.”

Reginald Wilson

Senior Scholar, American Council on Education

DIVIDING LINES

DIVIDING LINES

A film by Academy Award® nominated filmmaker Frances Reid

A highly acclaimed documentary film about college students confronting racism.

Dividing Lines takes us on a journey into the hearts and minds of young people today as they struggle with their country's racial legacy. With remarkable openness and candor, a diverse group of college students from across the country come together to share their anger, pain, confusion and hope with each other and with us. This gutsy film encourages self examination and dialogue as it takes us beneath the surface of America's racial divide.

RACE IN AMERICA

53 Minutes, Color
©1996 Iris Films
2600 Tenth Street
Suite 413
Berkeley, CA 94710
510.845.5414

